Dear Harold -

NOTES NO 1381

I had given G & G a list of people (including you) but it was imperative to get books out ~~to~~ the way 2 wks ago. I think their capacity was reached and I saw other signs of snapping under the strain. I finally started yelling at them yesterday to get the books out.

Thanks for the tip on deductions. I'll need a big one this year if I'm to come out ahead. The book cost much more to write than I imagined. But it's supposed to be selling well.

Rick the Cop has been suspended but I can't find out why. Can you? I need to know.

I did some major police work this week, setting up the arrest of a felon & ex-con. Not easy. I'm under some threat for it.

My mother's stroke is causing me endless difficulty. It's a no-win situation.

Yes, I made some of the same old mistakes on the new book, but it's much better than the first one, and people are saying so. I regret ever using secondary sources and believe I avoided it almost most of the time, if not all the time in this book. You must admit I got more from some of the sources than ever would have been known.

RE: On Perry I have a lot of bitter letters from Perry, so don't know what you want. Enclosed are a couple,
"Dallas Conference" You are mistaken as I did not bother the Nov 1991 affair. I would not. You're quite right about that. The Dallas Conference means my Dallas Conference in April of 1991. It was the real one. See the Chapter about that one, if you want to know how I spend my money.

My tour starts April 20. But they are concentrating on the US network shows. I have my doubts, as they are so saturated. We'll see.
RE: Bay of Pigs May have all come from Joint Chief
The CIA is a cover & takes the fall, that's my info (in) Thanks for a lot of the advice. You're right, &
I don't want to draw in Giarrang, Soriano etc.
Maybe you are misreading my discussions of both Mett etc. I think I show that it could not happen, to allegation. But I have to discuss it for the record.

Am very very tired today, so will close,

God bless,

Harry

Massive companion volume to Livingstone's massive 1989 study (not reviewed) of JFK assassination evidence, now a paperback bestseller. Here, 1972) takes a narrow focus here, concentrating largely on the medical evidence, and his review of the autopsy film—leads him to conclude that the morticians who prepared JFK's body for burial. The author books, the reporter and his methods become part of the story told: Livingstone's strongest moments come in talks to offer, and is good at exploding evidence put forth by others—e.g., has much new evidence to offer, and is good at exploding evidence put forth by others—e.g., moments new evidence to offer, and is good at exploding evidence put forth by others—e.g., the contention that Oswald did not have been taken from Oswald's backround. The author newspaper on Oswald info was taken from Oswald's backround. The author information on Oswald info was taken from Oswald's backround. The author points out that his Oswald info was taken from Oswald's backround. The author newspaper morgues and only in a most myth-making, he believes, has set back Kennedy comes down hard on JFK and Stone, whose myth-making, he believes, has set back Kennedy studies by "major assassination researchers" (himself included) by ten years. Livingstone argues that the FBI must know that there was more than a lone gunman. He also suggests that a bullet was stolen from Kennedy's body the lead fragments retrieved from Governor in Walter Reed) hospitals, and shows how the notorious "Noboddy, but noboddy, gets to be Connally's wrist in no way match up with the powerful business interests that own America. reveals his own deep feelings about the powerful business interests that own America. Warmly written without being a puppet of the powerful business interests that own America.
